Deacon McGuire (WSN) is the batter. He drove the ground ball so hard at 3B (John McGraw) that it nearly lifted him off his feet. 3B held on to the ball and fired it to the 2B (Frank Bonner) forcing the runner from first, Charlie Abbey (OUT 1)
2B in turn threw to the 1B (Dan Brouthers) who scooped it off the ground in time to retire the batter, Deacon McGuire (OUT 2)

Meanwhile the runner from second, Bill Joyce, had reached third and had overrun the base heading home. Without holding the ball a second, the 1B fired it to the 3B who nailed Joyce before he could get back to the base safely (OUT 3)

Morgan Murphy (SLN) is the batter. He hit a sharp grounder over second, which the 2B (Kid Gleason) stopped. 2B touched second to force the runner from first, Monte Cross (OUT 1)

2B then threw to the 1B (Parke Wilson) who had to pick the ball out of the dust to retire the batter, Morgan Murphy (OUT 2). The runner from third, Ed McFarland scored (SLN 2 NY1 0).

The 1B then whipped the ball home with lightning like rapidity to the C (John Warner) in time to catch the runner from second, John Houseman, who was trying to score (OUT 3)

Dick Padden (PIT) is the batter. He poked a little fly to short center field where the CF (Mike Griffin) raced in and trapped the ball. The runner from second, Steve Brodie, was hesitant leaving second, not sure if the ball was caught on the fly or not.

The CF continued racing in and tagged Brodie between second and third (OUT 1). The CF then whipped the ball to the SS (Germany Smith) who tagged second to force the runner from first, Patsy Donovan (OUT 2)

The batter, Padden, who had made the turn around first tried to sneak into second, but the alert SS tagged him as Dick slid into the bag (OUT 3)
